Abstract of an ACT, to enable His Majesty to put the Customs, and other Duties, in the British Dominions in America, and the Execution of the Laws relating to trade there, under the Management of Commissioners to be appointed for that Purpose, and to be resident in the said Dominions:

AS the officers appointed for the collection of the rates and duties in America, are obliged by 25 Car. II. to apply to the Commissioners of the Customs in England for their special instructions and directions upon every particular doubt and difficulty which arises in relation to the payment of the said rates and duties; whereby all persons concerned in the commerce and trade of the said Colonies and Plantations are greatly obstructed and delayed in the carrying on and transacting of their business: And as the appointing of Commissioners to be resident in some convenient part of his Majesty's dominions of America, and to be invested with such powers as are now exercised by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, by virtue of the laws in being, would relieve the said merchants and traders from the said inconveniences and tend to the encouragement of commerce and to the better securing of the said rates and duties, by the more speedy and effectual collection thereof:

It is therefore hereby enacted, that his Majesty be authorized to put the Customs, and other duties in the British Colonies in America, under the management of Commissioners to be resident there, with the same powers for carrying into execution the laws relating to the revenues and trades of the said Colonies as are exercised by the Commissioners of the Customs in England: The Crown also is empowered in such Commissions, to make provision for the execution of the said laws there.

All deputations and other authorities, granted by the Commissioners of the Customs of England before the passing of this Act, or granted before any Commission shall be issued in pursuance of this Act, are to be in force there, till revoked by the Treasury.

Abstract of an ACT for restraining and prohibiting the Governor, Council and House of Representatives, of the Province of New-York, until Provision shall have been made for furnishing the King's Troops with all the Necessaries required by Law, from passing or assenting to any Act, Vote or Resolution, for any other Purpose.

THE preamble to this act sets forth, That the province of New-York having, in direct disobedience of the authority of the British Legislature by the acts of 5: 6: and 7 George III. refused to make provision for the necessities required by those acts, it is therefore hereby enacted:

That from and after the first day of October, 1767, the Governor and Council of New-York are prohibited to pass or assent to any Act of Assembly, or any vote or resolution of the House of Representatives; and the said House likewise prohibited to pass, or make, any vote or resolution, except for adjournment, until provision be made by them, for furnishing the King's troops with all the necessities required by the recited acts; and all acts of Assembly, &c. contrary to the tenor hereof, after October 1, 1767, are declared void, except as to the choice and approbation of a Speaker of the House.

BOSTON, October 19

The following is extracted from a Letter wrote by a Gentleman of a public Character, dated Cork, July 7, 1767, Which came by a Vessel just arrived.

"I Hope the Situation of our American Provinces is more comfortable since the Repeal of the fatal Stamp-Act, and I do earnestly pray, that both religious and civil Liberty may be established more firmly among you.

By the public Papers from America I find the Province of New-York have had a new Attempt, &c. and I believe it is intended for all the Provinces, to quarter without the Consent of the present As-semblies, Soldiers upon them. These Impositions, I fear will occasion great Disturbances; but I honor the spirited tho' very modest Answer which the Assembly of New-York answered the Governor upon the Occasion. By the same Papers I find the Assembly of Pennsylvania have submitted: I am surprized the Assemblies and Provinces do not act in Concert and Unanimity. If once the Government of England can bring over some, I doubt it will not stop till the whole are brought over.

We have a greater scarcity of Provisions of all sorts this Year in Ireland, than has been felt for 30 Years past, inasmuch that unless we are supplied from America, our Poor will be in great Danger of suffering dreadfully. Our last Crop greatly failed, whereas we find you had a very plentiful one; we have got a few Cargoes of Wheat and Flour, but expect more.

We are apprehensive that we shall be saddled with part of the Crown Debts, next Session of Parliament, which is to meet next Winter, contrary to our Constitutional Rights, which will be very irksome to us, and must be done, if ever done, by Bribery and Corruption in our own Parliament."

Last Thursday, between 10 and 11 o'Clock in the Forenoon, a small Shock of an Earthquake was very sensibly felt by many Persons in this and the neighbouring towns:—We hear the Shock was very considerable at Piscataqua and the Parts Eastward, about the same time; tho' it seems not of consequence enough to be mentioned in the Portsmouth Gazette published the Day following.

Messieurs EDES and GILL.

I Find by the last papers the following paragraph under the New-York head, "The Votes that came by the Packet of the Assembly of New-York, gave very great Satisfaction, and the people in general were glad to hear they had so far agreed to furnish the Troops as was intended by Parliament, many of which are to be transported to Ireland."
The person who inserted this piece of news I suppose intended to have the reader believe that the assembly of New-York had comply'd with what is called the billeting act as far as was expected of them by the Parliament; and, that if they had not so done more troops would have been sent to America than are now to be expected; for why else are many of them to be transported back to Ireland? The conduct of New-York in this critical affair may be of very great consequence to the rest of the colonies; and therefore it should not be given out to us in such dark hints. I very much question whether New-York has yet comply'd with the act, as seems to have been insisted upon: If I am mistaken, it is easy for you to make the matter certain, and I wish you would get the best intelligence from New-York as soon as may be: That they have and are always ready to grant their Sovereign necessary aid, I make no doubt of; and I shall be very glad if the manner of their furnishing the troops is agreeable to what the parliament intended; provided it be also with their own free consent, and, without fear or constraint—in such a case there never need to be any difference between the Mother Country and America on this head; but if New-York has conceded that the Parliament have a right to prescribe law to them in the case, to leave them only in a manner an executive power, or rather to constitute them such, how agreeable soever their concession may be to the intention of the Parliament, they have altogether receded from their first principles; of which the New-York News writer has left us altogether uncertain.

Your's, A. A.

NEW-YORK, October 29.

Captain Lawrence spoke an Indianman, from Madras and Bengal, the Captain of which informed him, that an Englishman had lately set up for himself in that Part of the World, and had collected such a Banditti together, as to be able to see both the Mogull, and the English Army in the Field, but that it is thought he would soon be cut off, notwithstanding he was allowed to be an excellent Soldier.

Saturday Night the Ship Christian, Captain Pine arrived here in three Weeks from Antigua: The 17th Instant he fell in with the Snow Muggy, Captain Allison, of and from Philadelphia, bound for Antigua, dismasted and with her side stove in, which happened in a violent Gale of Wind a few Days before; and the Vessel being a perfect wreck, Captain Allison and his Crew, abandoned her, and have been brought safe in here by Captain Pine.

The 9th Captain Pine met a schooner from Virginia, bound for the West-Indies, that had been in the same Gale, had lost her Main-Mast, and was returning to refit.

Last Thursday Week, the Negro that murdered Teurs, was burnt at Hackinsack, agreeable to his Sentence.

From Hunterdon County in New-Jersey, we learn, that Mr. Daniel Hart, of that Place, was cruelly murdered by his own Negro, on Monday Morning the 12th Instant, in the following Manner, viz. Mr. Hart, called the Negro up to his Work, as usual, which he refused, for which he intended to chastise him; but as soon as Mr. Hart entered the Negro's Room, the Fellow stab'd him in several Places with his Knife. Mr. Hart, not expecting, nor being prepared for such cruel Treatment, with Difficulty got down Stairs, but was followed by the Negro, where the Villain got an Ax, and dispatched him by a cruel Wound on the Shoulder, and some other Parts of the Body. The Cries of the Father being heard by his Son, a young Man, who was but a little Way from the House, coming up to see what was the Matter, received a terrible Wound on the Cheek from the Negro, who would have dispatched the Son as well as the Father, had he not saved his Life by Flight. The Negro then went into his Master's House, and finding his Mistreffs had absconded, who, we make no Doubt he intended to dispatch, he armed himself, with his Ax and Knite, and took to the Woods, and we have not yet heard whether or no he has been taken.

On the 17th Inst. died after a tedious Illness, in the 35th Year of his Age, to the unspeakable Grief of his Friends, and the great Loss of the Public, the Revd. Robert M'Kean, M. A. Rector of Perth-Amboy, and Missionary from the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel;—an unshaken Friend, an agreeable Companion, a rational Divine, a skilful Physician, and in every Relation of Life, a truly benevolent and honest Man.

The Sloop Dolphin, Capt. — in a Gale of Wind, in Lat. 39, Long. 72 lost her Bowspit Jib and Caboose.

The Brigantine Squirrel of Yarmouth George Heslope Master, last from Bayonne; in Lat. 31, N. Long. 34, W. spoke with Capt. Ebenezer Turrel, of the Sloop Charming Sally, of and from New-York, bound to the River Gambio, all well.

In Lat. 28, N. Long. 58, W. spoke with Capt.
John Ellis in the Ship Invincible, of and from Philadelphia, bound to Barbados.

Sunday the 18th Instant the House of Mr. Joseph Cheesman, on the North Side of Hampstead Plains, was entirely consumed by Fire. The Neighbouring Men being all at Church, no Affistance could be afforded to extinguish the Flames; however, the Women made shift to save some of the principal Furniture. This Accident was owing to a foul Chimney, which first took Fire, and immediately communicated to all the Building. It is surprising that People will not be more careful to clean their Chimnies in Time, when so many Instances of Fire happen from foul Chimnies.

On Monday next, at 11 in the Forenoon, by Dr.
Middleton, will be delivered in the College-Hall, a public Lecture, upon the History, Nature, and Usefulness of Physick; introductory to the several Medical Chaises to commence there from that Time.

By the last Vessels from LONDON, we have received nothing extraordinary:—However, the most material Intelligences, we have inserted in our SUPPLEMENT.—But as the List

POETS CORNER.

The PARLIAMENT of BEASTS. A FABLE.

SOMEWHERE on one of Afric's plains,
They say a certain Lion reigns,
Who on a season sent for all
The Beasts into his royal hall;
There at his bidding they repair'd,
When thus the King his mind declar'd.

"My Lords and Gentlemen, ye know

It is a long, long while ago,
Since last I call'd you to debate
On the emergencies of State.

The war in which we are engag'd,
Successfully we yet have wag'd;
Yet I must ask your farther aid,
Our treasury is much decay'd;
You must then ways and means devise,
And speedily, to raise supplies."

He spoke; the beasts, with loyal hearts,
Assur'd him they would play their parts,
Nought should be wanting to make known
Their ardour to defend the throne;

Now what to tax was the affair;
It could be neither hides nor hair.
What could it be? The Tiger rose:
The Tiger would his thoughts disclose.
"The subsidies requir'd to raise,
(Says he) there are not many ways,
Suppose you lay a tax on Vice,
'Twould fill th' Exchequer in a trice.
And in that case each of us still Shall tax his neighbour, if you will.
Thus none (for who from faults is free?)
Shall 'scape; do this, and trust to me."

"Sir, quoth the Elephant, your scheme
Is wild; indeed it is; you dream.
One tax the other's vices! No;
A shorter, surer way to go,
Tax Virtues, and let each declare
His own stock of them; 'tis but fair;
And you shall find, or I'm a dunce,
Th' exchequer will be fill'd at once."

SUPPLEMENT

OR, GENERAL

ADVERTISER.

[THURSDAY, October 29, 1767.]

[NUMB. 1295.]

LONDON, September 3.

WE hear that a Gentleman who lately offered himself a Candidate for a Northern Borough, had in his Retinue two Sumpter-horses heavy laden, with a superb covering over their Backs, on which was wrote in large Gold Letters, on the one, Money for the Election, and on the other, More Money for the Election.

Sept. 4. The Apartments in St. James's Palace are fitting up against her Majesty's Lying in, which is expected in a few Weeks; the Apartments in the Queen's Palace not being in Readiness.

It is the Opinion of several shrewd Politicians, that his Excellency Lord Townshend will be twice Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to make him amends for the Loss he has sustained by his present late Appointment to that high Office, as his Excellency has lost above a Year's Salary by not being appointed in the usual Time.

Yesterday Mr. William Martin, Hosier of Coleman-street, had the Honour of presenting her Majesty with a curious Specimen of his new invented Womens Patent Silk Mitts and Gloves, made exactly after the Manner of the French (that have been prohibited since June, 1765) at which her Majesty was pleased to express the highest Approbation.

Wednesday an eminent Silk-weaver in Spitalfields discharged twenty-nine Journeymen for Want of Employment.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Right Hon. William Spry, Esq; Judge of all America, to be Vice-Admiral of the Island of Barbadoes, in the room of Governor Pinfold, who has resigned.

A few Nights ago a Lady at the West End of the Town, having lost a considerable Sum at Gaming, was so chagrined that she tucked herself up in her own Bed-chamber, but fortunately her Maid came in, and cut her down Time enough to save her Life; but she has behaved in such a Manner ever since, that a Watch has been set over her, to prevent her making away with herself any other Way.

The following is a melancholy Fact. The Death Warrant for the Execution of Goodeye and Butcher, two unhappy convicts for Horse-stealing, arrived at Chelmsford last Friday Se'nnight, ordering them to suffer at Six o'clock the same Evening. It was supposed, by their being ordered to be executed at such a Time, that a Reprieve would be sent, and the poor Wretches remained at the fatal Tree till Seven, in earnest Hopes and Prayers for the welcome News, when they were ordered to be turned off: And, alas! the Reprieve for both of them did not arrive till Six o'clock the next Morning. How this happened is not publicly known. It is said the Reprieve was signed in due Time. Lon. Chron.

Tuesday a Soldier belonging to the Foot-Guards having some Words with his Wife, at a Public-house in Hedge-lane, about a Man whom he suspected to have criminal Conversation with her, flew into such a Rage, that he stabbed her in several Parts of the Body, in a very dangerous Manner; upon which he was taken up and carried before a Magistrate, who committed him to the Gatehouse, to take his Trial next Sessions.

Sept. 1. Yesterday both Houses of Parliament met pursuant to their last Prorogation, and by Virtue of a Commission from his Majesty was further prorogued 'till Wednesday the 7th of October next. The Commissioners were the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and Lord Townshend.

Sept. 7. The following political conjectures, we hear, occurred in a conversation this week at a coffee-house near St. James's:

That the marriage of the Prince Stadtholder with a Princess of Prussia, would be a fine barrier to the Dutch; and that in case of a rupture with England, the King of Prussia would immediately seize Hanover. Nay, it was even expected that the King of Prussia was so offended at his demand of three years subsidy not being accepted of by England, who put him off with one only and made peace without his consent, that he will take the first pretence of joining the family compact, who will then permit him to seize Hanover as a recompence.

That a war with France, Spain and Holland must soon happen; and that the French had got 60 ships of the line, already more than they ought to have, besides a great number of frigates, and would take the first opportunity of retaliating upon England, by seizing their fleets when the seas were covered with them in coming home.

That as an inducement for the King of Prussia to join the family compact, France was to allow a toleration of religion throughout her dominions, which would be the greatest blow England could receive.

Many of the gentlemen were of opinion, that a war with France, Spain and Holland, would be of advantage to England, because then it must be confined to a naval one, and would be the only means of uniting the nation.

It has always been observed, that previous to a war with France, the French Ambassadors generally make the most splendid appearance.

'Tis said that to prevent any farther animosities between the Mother Country and the Colonies, the expediency of granting the Americans representatives in the English Parliament, will be considered the moment a new administration is established.

Aug. 22. Letters from Paris by the two last mails mention that it has been observed as a remarkable circumstance, that his Royal Highness the Duke of York has had several conferences with the Duke of Praslin Prime-minister; the Count de Guerchy, late Ambassador; and the Count de Chatelet, intended ambassador from France to this Court; from whence the French politicians seem to infer that those visits are probably something more than complimentary.

By a gentleman just come from America we learn, that our old colonies have increased at least one third, in point of populousness, since the peace; that the cities of Philadelphia and New-York are greatly enlarged and improved; that the number of inhabitants in Canada are doubled; and that the settlers invited to the two Floridas, from the continent of Europe, by the lenity of the British laws, are daily increasing.

Aug. 27. Tuesday a number of Colony agents, as also some eminent Portugal merchants, attended the Board of Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

The Hawk, Capt. Hall, which arrived last week with near 2000 quarters of wheat and 500 barrels of flour, from New-York, is now cleared, and the commodities are reckoned better than most that have been imported.

We hear the wheat and flour imported last week in the river from New-York, is esteemed by good judges equal in quality to any produced in this kingdom.

time in their places, not on the low principle, which has been suggested by faction, of a fondness for the emoluments of office, but merely for the sake of a curious experiment in politics; by which that science may be very much, and very usefully improved. They have a curiosity to try, at their own risk, how far an administration may be supported by the sole power of the Court, against all the great interests of the kingdom.

Aug. 29. They write from Paris, that an ingenious mechanic, had invented a machine for raising the heaviest stones to the top of the highest buildings, which can with ease, be worked by a single person. We hear from Milford-Haven in Wales, that 6 36 gun frigates are now building there, and in great forwardness; and that two others are preparing to be put on the stocks.
